Members present – First Selectman Allan Cahill, and Selectman Bob Grindle

2. Audience for Citizens – None

3. Discussion & Action: Governor Lamont Executive Orders No7S - #6 Suspension & Modification of Tax Deadlines and Collection Efforts. Office of Policy and Management Plan A Deferment Program for all tax payers (for up to 90 days) October 1, 2020.

Motion: First Selectman Cahill/Selectman Grindle moved/seconded to approve Governor Lamont’s Executive Order No 7S - #6 Suspension & Modification of Tax Deadlines and Collection Efforts. Office of Policy and Management Plan A Deferment Program for all tax payers (for up to 90 days) October 1, 2020. Motion passed.

4. Discussion & Action on Memorial Day Observance – I received a letter from The National Guard informing us that they will not be able to support our Memorial Day Observance because of all that they have to do because of virus. We don’t know if things will be any better by then so we will have to cancel the parade to play it safe.

Motion: Selectman Grindle/First Selectman Cahill moved/seconded to cancel parade and have an observance with a wreath. Residents can drive by Town Hall War Memorial and pay respects all day. Selectman Grindle will check with the parade committee to see what else we can do. Motion passed.

5. Audience for citizens – Shannon Haddad suggested that we have Fire Dept go around town in observance of Memorial Day. First Selectman Cahill and Selectman Grindle thought it might be a good idea. Selectman Grindle will talk to the Parade Committee.

6. Adjournment – Selectman Grindle/First Selectman Cahill made motion to adjourn at 6:09 PM Motion passed.

Approved by the Board of Selectman on May 7, 2020
