

SUNDAY, JULY 4: HAMPTON CELEBRATES HONKY TONK TWANG WITH A RETURN TO MUSIC AND DANCIN'

Dust off your dancin' shoes and come to the Pavilion, Town Hall, 164 Main Street, for a night of honky tonk with Ken Atkins and the Turnpike Allstars. Bring chairs or a blanket, your beverages and treats, for a party with plenty of space for dancing and singing along.

The Turnpike Allstars band specializes in country and country swing, with plenty of "twang" to go around!! Ken Atkins is the principal vocalist and guitarist. Band members are Bob Oxenhorn, bass, Corey Dolinsky, steel guitar, Tom Trombley, drums, and Paul "Swampy" Davis, harmonica. The band is popular throughout New England and was last seen in Hampton at a Memorial Day chicken barbecue.

Music starts at 7:00 PM, admission is free, no reservations needed. Parking is available at the Community Center and Hampton Town Hall.
